WITH Blaine out of the way President Harrison has the field to himself.

THE ice dealers in this section have housed plenty of the congealed article and there will be no scarcity of it this summer.

POTTSVILLE will not be satisfied with a government building that costs less than $100,000. Shenandoah will accept a $25,000 one and give the ground for it gratis.

SEVERAL young men have written to the HERALD inquiring in what part of the world "push and energy" may win for a young man something more than mere existence. In answer to these bright young men we wish to say that push and energy will win just as much in Shenandoah as it will anywhere. Indeed, push and energy in this town should be more successful than any place else, since it would be such an exceeding rarity. If a little push and energy should be infused into Shenandoah it would frighten some of the dozing snails into their graves.

A Marked Improvement.
A marked improvement is noticeable in this week's issue of Frank Leslie's Illustrated Weekly—an improvement not only in its letter-press, but in the character of the illustrations. We notice that a number of new artists are working on this, the best illustrated weekly published in this country. The most striking double-page published is that in this week's issue, which shows just the condition of affairs on the grounds of the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago. This representation of the different buildings is alone worth the price of the paper. There are also to be found in it handsome pictures of the proposed new Episcopal cathedral in the city of New York; a striking picture entitled "A Close Shave," representing a small fishing smack just missed by an ocean steamer, and a page devoted to the obsequies of the late Duke of Clarence. The illustrated story "Leah" is especially worthy of note. Price, ten cents. To be had at your newsdealer's.

Laugh!
Of course they did. They couldn't help it. The broad grin lasted, too, until they reached the street, and that's the best part of it. This was at Granite Hall last evening. The occasion was the presentation of the funniest farce-comedy ever written—"A Social Session"—and the continued applause and hearty bursts of laughter were sufficient evidence of the satisfaction it gave the packed house that had assembled to witness it. The singing of Kate Sprague was fine, and was repeatedly encored. The specialties of Billy Gray brought down the house time and time again. The balance of the company was good throughout. The music of the orchestra was a feature and was particularly fine.—Kennebec Journal. "Social Session" will appear at Ferguson's theatre this evening.

Literary Program.
The following is the programme arranged for the next meeting of the "Y," which will be held on Saturday evening, February 13:

A SERMON ON THE MILLENNIUM.

INTELLIGENT DISCUSSION OF
AN INTERESTING SUBJECT.
THE RESTORATION OF THE JEWS.
As Discoursed in the Presbyterian Church by Rev. McNally, the Pastor—One of the Last Series

The following is a synopsis of the sermon preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, January 17th, by Rev. William McNally. After depicting the horrors of the Great Tribulation the clergyman spoke as follows:

It is very plain that the Lord does not come at a time of peace and righteousness, but at a time of war, violence and sin reigning everywhere, "as it was in the days of Noah;" "as it was in the days of Lot." Over against the awful tribulation rises the millennium. "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." The small moment of eclipse and wrath shall be followed with everlasting kindness. This is the golden age of hope and prophecy. Poets have seen it afar as the mirage upon the desert sky. Ancient seers have printed its growing outlines in words and images they could not themselves understand, and living and dying patriarchs and saints have looked forward to it with great desire. Man has tried to make his own millennium; poetry has dreamed of it and sunk into a sensuous paradise; patriots and optimists have drawn the vision of a golden age of liberty, equality, peace and plenty, and seen only anarchy, licentiousness and misery arise at the touch of their deceptive wand; moralists have toiled for purity, temperance and virtue, and dreamed of a day when social reform will have blotted out the last plague spot from our cities, only to see wickedness, crime, intemperance and woman's shame increase with increasing civilization; christian reformers have expected a spiritual millennium, in which the gospel shall cover the marred pulations of the earth, and make every land a holy, happy paradise of love and joy and holiness. But, alas! The lands that are most evangelized are sometimes the farthest from millennial piety or purity; and were all the world to reach to-morrow the condition to which christian lands have attained after so many centuries of effort, earth would still be a sight to make Him weep who died to redeem it.

I make bold to assert with all positiveness that the millennium will never come through the gradual improvement, and self lifting power of the human race. The verdict of all secular history is against it, and the ruins of a dozen independent civilizations already laugh this worn-out hope to scorn. Even since the christian church fell away from its apostolic first estate, by marrying the world and allowing Emperors to rule it, (beginning with Constantine, who was Pontifex Maximus, or high priest of Paganism, until a few hours before his death), men have dreamed through incantations, that the millennium would come by efforts born of the dust, and have ignored the Saviour's express intimation that reign of peace and righteousness must wait in sack-cloth for His return.

Religion is a very small factor in the process, any way, for nowadays the majority of men turn away from the churches as unworthy their notice. Then, how many years will it take, according to the present method, to bring in the millennium? I repeat, that all such efforts to establish the millennial kingdom are in vain. What a travesty it is, for instance, upon presumptuous human reason, that after almost 6,000 years of effort, it has failed to compass an harmonious social system. How many more thousand years will it take, working on the same principle? The present state of affairs is unsatisfactory. Labor and capital are arrayed one against the other; we have liberalism, atheism, socialism, nihilism, terrorism and devilism, and the name of the whole breed is license. "Let me do what I please, for I have a right to do it." Is this a pleasing millennium? Rather, does it not assure us that we are living in just such a state of chaos as the Lord himself, prophets and apostles have plainly told us we would be in when the time drew near for the coming of Messiah to set up His kingdom on the earth? Things will go on from bad to worse, culminating in the "anti-christ" or "beast," as he is called, who with the Prince of Kosh, Meschek and Tubal (Ezekiel, chapters 38 and 39) will persecute God's ancient people and many of the Gentile people, till at last Israel's king appears and the "Hosannah, Blessed is He that Cometh," will be heard. Then Israel will be delivered, the beast and false prophet will be slain, the army of Gog and Magog will fall upon the hills of Palestine, and the Lord God will reign over the earth, and over His people Israel. I look for no millennium until "G-d appears on earth to reign." Let us consider a few features of this millennium.

1. We shall have a world without Satan.

He will be bound and shut up in the abyss, that he may deceive the nations no more until the thousand years (millennium) are finished (Rev. 20-4); every hindrance to the glory of God and the happiness of His creatures on the earth will be removed. Now the kingdom is the Lord's, and the whole earth is under His dominion, and righteousness and peace universally prevail. "He hath remembered His mercy and truth toward the house of Israel, and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God." While He shall be king over all the earth, He will be especially Israel's king; "for the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of His father David, and He shall rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there shall be no end." Then shall the kingdom be indeed restored to Israel, and that despised people shall become "a crown of glory in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of their God." In anticipation of that day the prophet Isaiah says: "Break forth into joy ye waste places of Jerusalem, for the Lord hath comforted His people, and He hath redeemed Jerusalem." Thus shall the Lord of Hosts reign in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before His ancients gloriously; and the name of the city from that day shall be "Jehovah Shammah" or "The Lord is There." Then shall Isaiah 60, 16-20 have their complete fulfillment.

2. Wickedness and war shall be abolished. There shall be nothing to hurt or to destroy in all the holy mountain of the Lord; for the knowledge of the Lord shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea. "Nation shall not lift up the sword against nation, &c." We do not say that there shall be no sin left in human hearts during the millennium, but we do say that open wickedness shall be suppressed and restrained under the holy and universal sway of Christ and His saints. The world will be evangelized. Death will be a rare thing.

3. The curse will be removed from the earth. We know where and why the curse came in. Adam fell, and for his sake the ground was cursed. In that day the curse is removed. Two nations shall occupy the millennial earth—first, the Jewish nation, previously restored to their own land, shall be the queen of nations; secondly, the Gentile nations shall also be left on the earth, and shall be converted to Christ. In this great missionary movement the Jews are to be largely instrumental. (Isaiah 66; 19.)

4. The animal creation will undergo a radical change, and become as docile and tame as they were in Eden before the fall. The only creature from which God does not remove the curse is the serpent; even in that day God remembers the part it played in Eden, and therefore, we are told, that "dust shall be the serpent's food."
5. Jerusalem shall become a praise in the earth. "Out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem." She who has been trodden down will occupy a wonderful place in that day, and her recovered glory will as much eclipse that of the past, as the glory of Christ the King will surpass that of Solomon.

6. The risen and translated saints will reign over the earth. Satan absent, in Lord present, how glorious!
As nearly as we can judge from the later descriptions of the New Jerusalem, it would seem to be a city, or sphere, or exceeding glory, poised just above the earth, and in constant communication with it. In it shall dwell the children of the Resurrection during the 1000 years. The confusion of languages forms a very serious impediment now to the communion of Saints, but there seems to be reason to conclude that in the millennial dispensation this disadvantage will be removed; and there shall be one language. (Z. ph. III, 9). What the one pure language will be, we are not told, but may it not be the ancient Hebrew, the language of God's chosen people? Every true christian must earnestly desire the establishment of this kingdom of blessedness, then let us unite with the Apostle John, and pray, "Even so. Come, Lord Jesus."

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.
Mr. and Mrs. Loren Truscott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich. and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dread cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain. She grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store.

Desirable Lodge Room.
A lodge desiring a cosy meeting room on Wednesday, Saturday, or Sunday evenings of each week can be accommodated at Mellet's hall, which has been recently papered, painted and carpeted. Apply to M. Mellet.

If there ever was a real cure for chronic Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and La Grippe it is Fan-Tin. Don't fail to get the genuine; avoid substitutes. Costs only 25 cents. Fan-Tin is sold at F. P. D. Kirin's Drug Store.

SECOND WARD NOMINATIONS.

CITIZENS' NAME THEIR STAND-ARD BEARERS.

R. W. STOUT CHOSEN FOR COUNCIL
Thomas Baird and Daniel Ogden
Were Nominated by Acclamation for School Directors.
Other Nominees.

Last night's primary of the Citizens' party, of the Second ward, was held in Ferguson's front hall.

The crowd present was large, filling the room almost to suffocation. It was some time after the hour fixed for the meeting when Supervisor Lilawally called the meeting to order, and named Squire Dengler as chairman. The Squire was elected by acclamation and took the chair, using his huge cane for a gavel.

W. J. Morgan was chosen secretary and Messrs. W. N. Ehrhart and Elmer Wasley tellers.

The first business was the nomination of a candidate for Council for three years. R. W. Stout, John H. Evans and F. J. Portz were named, the latter without authority.

On balloting R. W. Stout came off an essay victor.

Thomas Baird and Daniel Ogden were nominated for School Directors by acclamation, the former for three years and the latter for one year.

For Judge of Election F. H. Hopkins, Jr., was nominated by acclamation.

Andrew Stack was nominated for Inspector of Election, and George H. Krick for ward assessor.

Only one set of Borough Conferees were named, in the interest of Burgess Leisig, and they were chosen by acclamation. If Mr. Dean had instructed any one to name his conferees he failed to do so. The conferees are A. Woomer, Robert Hagenbuch and Patrick Sullivan.

For the Standing Committee H. C. Boyer was chosen by acclamation.

MUST RESIDE HERE.

U. S. Pensioners in Other Countries to Receive No Money.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The attention of Congressman Newberry of Illinois, having been called to a dispatch from Montreal stating that there is much anxiety among persons residing in Canada and drawing pensions from the United States Government, over his bill providing that no pension shall be paid to any person who is not a resident of the United States.

Mr. Newberry said his measure was a good one, and its main object was to bring the pensioners residing in other countries, back to the United States.

In Germany, Austria, Turkey, Egypt, and in fact all over the world, he said, there were large numbers of United States pensioners residing who had no intention of ever returning to the United States.

They could live abroad cheaper, and they were raising families, the sons becoming citizens of foreign countries, and, in case of war with the United States, they would fight against their mother country.

"When I was in Germany," Mr. Newberry continued, "I talked with many number of United States pensioners who expressed an intention of remaining away from home, and altogether, about 10,000, or more, of such people are living throughout the world."

THE WATERBURY CASE.

Sheriff Welsh Says the Kidnappers Will Be Given to New York State.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Feb. 10.—The Waterbury kidnapping case came before the Westchester grand jury, that body having its session.

Charles F. Waterbury of Long Ridge and his little 8-year-old son Ward, who was kidnapped by Charles E. Waterbury, John McCann and Sam Sutherland, came to White Plains in response to subpoenas by District-Attorney Platt.

Both father and son went before the grand jury and told the story of the kidnapping. It is said that the recital of the case by little Ward made a profound impression on the jury.

Sheriff Thomas Welsh of Connecticut was also here. He said the Connecticut authorities would deliver the three kidnappers over to the Westchester authorities if the grand jury found an indictment.

PERSONAL.

Cashier Leisenring, of H. Zetton, was in town to-day.

Conductor Zach Moyer, who ran between Wilkes-Barre and Pottsville, has been transferred to another division.

Amusements.

The Baldwin Comedy Company will appear at Ferguson's theatre all next week (except Wednesday). They open their engagement with the sensational drama entitled, "Michael Strogoff," of their performance of this play the Owego Times mentions as follows: The Baldwin Comedy Company opened a week's engagement at the Opera House last night in that well known melodrama, Michael Strogoff. The play is one of such strength that only a company of artists can successfully present it. Be it to the credit of the Baldwin company that they handled Michael Strogoff last night admirably. Allen Demond, as Michael Strogoff, made a most excellent impression. And in fact it may be truthfully said that the entire company is without a stick. Admission 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats on sale 9 a. m. Saturday.

"Our Shoes Don't Pinch"

A gang of itinerant impostors under the guise of artists have invaded the town and are trying to pass an inferior grade of bromide prints on the people, upon which they are compelled to pay fifty cents at time of giving order. Subsequently a charge of two dollars (for which there is no stipulation) is imposed. These men are not artists and know nothing of art. They receive from their manufacturers whatever grade can be obtained at the lowest price. The real makers of these pictures are beginners who are struggling to learn the business and who are willing to work for merely enough to pay their expenses. The pictures are made in the cities of the cheapest grades of materials. Consider well before giving them your order. The photographers of the city struggle to please their patrons, not requiring any "down fee," but guarantee satisfaction, or money refunded.

Demand Heard Around the World.

This a strong cartoon in this week's issue of Judge. It pictures President Harrison holding the United States flag backed by a united North and South, standing firm in defense of this country's rights. Cull, being wrong, is represented as making ample apology. The front page shows one how the Democratic majority under the leader Holman, the watch-dog of the treasury, has cut off all appropriations of every kind. He is represented as a country tailor who has sadly delapidated Uncle Sam's garments. It is the best sort of a Republican argument. Get this week's Judge of your newsdealer. Price, 10 cents.

Preliminary Meeting.

A meeting will be held in Beddall's hall, above R. H. Morgan's store, on Friday evening, February 12th at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Game and Fish Protective Association. The people of Mahanoy City, Pottsville, Shamokin and Ashland have recently organized a similar association, and are doing good work in protecting the game. Let Shenandoah do likewise.

The License Mill.

The Court acted on the following Shenandoah licenses: Rejected—Mrs. Alice Mann, Third ward. Granted—James J. Bradigan, Fifth ward.

Third Ward Primary.

The Third ward primary of the Citizens' party will be held in Ferguson's front hall this evening at 7 o'clock.

Keagoy is Ahead.

And he is on the first floor. Remember, no steps to climb with your children, and his work talks without money.

Editors Meet.

The editors of the Schaykill county association held their regular quarterly meeting at Pottsville yesterday.

As our reporter came along Water street last night, shivering with the chill night air, and drawing his overcoat tightly about him, he thought, "now is the time for coughs and colds," but if poor mortals only knew what a certain cure Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is, how few would long suffer, and then it costs only twenty-five cents.—Sandusky, (Ohio) Register.
